RENOMA CAFÉ GALLERY PARIZ

For fans of hip and happening places, we bring you the reopening of the Renoma Café Gallery... brand new and beautifully redesigned!

Either have a drink, organize a business lunch or enjoy a romantic dinner... any time is the right time to head to the Renoma Café Gallery.

The Renoma Café Gallery is not just a restaurant, it is a hub of social activity, part art gallery, part boutique and part fine dining establishment. Managed by "the grandson of Alain Bernardin, founder of the Crazy Horse," Alfred Bernardin has brought a whole new lease of life to the Renoma Café Gallery with delectable and diverse cuisine presented to you in a cozy, urban atmosphere, and décor featuring New York street art. Ideally located between avenue George V and rue Pierre Charron, the Renoma Café Gallery can accommodate up to 170 guests, with 56 on the terrace. During happy hour, from 6:00-8:00 PM, choosing a drink from the cocktail menu becomes increasingly difficult, as each drink looks more enticing than the last. Cosmopolitan, Trucula Bonbon (absolut vodka, basil, strawberry, vanilla cane sugar), Sunny Paradis (beefeater gin, cointreau, cane sugar, cranberry juice, ginger)... these amazing combinations will help you sit back and unwind whilst chatting among friends. After your cocktail, sample the menu of Olivier Camus de la Guérinière. Traditional French cuisine with an American twist creates an exotic dining experience. All tastes and desires will be satisfied with this original and flavoursome menu, allowing you to rediscover and appreciate certain sophisticated dishes such as the Burrata, tomato confite and olive oil, followed by swordfish with sauce vierge and créole rice. Finish on a sweet note with the famous Philadelphia cheesecake and coulisA real treat for gourmets and gourmands!

The Renoma Café Gallery is also about soirées centered on one important concept: celebration!

The programming is unique, thanks to surprises which are organized every week for a "hip" clientèle. A DJ sets the scene every Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:00 PM, al-allowing you to let your hair down and groove to the beat until 2:00 in the morning...

Organizing an event at Renoma Café Gallery is both easy and stress-free. Alfred Bernardin will make your wishes come true with original decorations and the possibility of creating a personalized menu. It is possible to rent the Renoma Café Gallery for an event accommodating from 10 to 350 people, offering a space dedicated to celebrating and interacting with your guests without being disturbed.

Renoma Café Gallery is also a creative space in a contemporary setting, which hosts photography exhibitions several times a year. Not only this, it also serves as a center of activity for shopping and lounging freely on the antique leather Chesterfield sofas or in vintage chairs from the 1960s. The Renoma Café Gallery is the "arty" spot par excellence, with rooms inspired by the industrial style housing tables d'hôtes and tables d'amoureux.

Passionate about the restaurant world, Alfred Bernardin has always wanted to manage his own establishment. After attending hotel school in Switzerland, gaining internships at the Crillon and then at the Méridien in London, he travelled to Los Angeles where he became Food and Beverage Manager at Standard Hollywood... An unexpected encounter with Maurice Renoma brought him back to his first love, and he set out to re-energize the Renoma Café Gallery on avenue George V.

To add strength to his team, Alfred joined forces with Laurent Lesort, who boasts more than 20 years' experience as a restaurateur. Laurent founded and managed numerous prestigious restaurants between New York and Paris such as la Goulue, Jour et Nuit (Paris & NY), Frederick's... Great recommendation!
